

The 'BROADCAST'

Newsletter 3: 20th September 2019

Celebrations

Well done to the 45 children who have now signed up to take part in Young Voices 2020. We have 84 parents booked in the audience too. Guest artists this year include Tony Hadley (Spandau Ballet) and Ruti (Winner of The Voice).

We look forward to another momentous occasion.

Rugby Club: Many of our children will know

Bernard O'Connor-father of Isabella and Louis.

Rugby training has started on Sundays at the Mill Lane club open to all Castle Hill pupils from reception through to year six, starting at 10am. The first session to all new players is free.

Dear Parents- Thank you so much for your patience whilst the building work continues. We are starting to see it take shape. Soon we will be able to use the new facilities which we know will be a great improvement for everyone.

FRIENDS

Thank you to everyone that came to support FRIENDS at the AGM. We are delighted by the enthusiasm we have had from the new Reception parents. The FRIENDS have already raised a fabulous £500 for the school from their innovative idea of filling a Smartie tube with 20p over the summer. Thank you to everyone that participated. The winning class was Year 4. They raised the most money. We invite them to wear their own clothes to school as a treat on Wednesday 16th October.

Moving forward, these are the events organised for the rest of this term:

Friday 11th October-Christmas Card Making Workshop

Friday 18th October- Disco- KS1 5pm-6pm

KS2 6.15pm-7.30pm

Friday 29th November-Film Night 3pm-4.30pm

Please support the FRIENDS in every way you can. Support the events or off to help. Both would be most appreciated.

A brilliant start to PAWS. The quality of the work this year is outstanding. The upcycling out of recycled plastic has been especially popular with some real talent and creativity shown. Jackson, in Year 1, has filmed putting his upcycled bird house in a tree on See Saw. Rosie, in Year 3, has made coasters for the staff room. Riley, in Year 3, has made a pencil pot holder and Maisie, in Year 4, has made a beauty box—complete with mirror. Such imagination!
