

Castle Hill Reading Spine KS2

Below is what constitutes what we believe is a rich and varied spine of literature (fiction, non-fiction and poetry) which our children will experience during their time at Castle Hill. This has been carefully constructed to reflect a variety of authors, genres and both classic and contemporary fiction.

This is the non-negotiable diet that our children will be given, but it will also be enriched by other literature as appropriate which will also reflect new authors and new fiction for children.
