

Forest

School

Forest School at Castle Hill is a holistic way for our pupils to safely explore the natural world. The children use tools, cook, make dens, climb trees, meet bugs, get muddy and follow their imaginations.

They learn to work independently and collaboratively and develop the idea of themselves as successful learners in the classroom and throughout their lives.

looking for the Owl babies!