Our Programme of Study for P.S.H.C.E aims to develop skills and attributes such as resilience, self-esteem, risk management, team working and critical thinking in the context of learning grouped into three core themes: health and well being, relationships and living in the wider world (including economic well being aspects of careers education).

- The National Curriculum states that all schools should make provision for personal, social, health and economic education, drawing on good practice.
- P.S.H.C.E education contributes to schools statutory duties outlined in the Education Act 2002
- It provides a broadly-based curriculum and is essential to personal development, behaviour, welfare and safeguarding.
- The relationships and health aspects of P.S.H.C.E education will be compulsory in all schools from 2020
