

Writing

During Year 3 children should be able to:

- plan main points as a structure for story writing and plan and write own stories in a range of styles
- write poems using a range of poetic techniques such as alliteration and onomatopoeia
- write in a range of non-fiction text types for example instructions and non-chronological reports
- use a wider range of punctuation including inverted commas for speech
- reread and edit their own writing
- begin to join their handwriting
- begin to use paragraphs
- develop writing stamina and independence
