Dear Families

Next Monday, our Young Voices choir will be going to Birmingham to join the biggest choir in the country. We are looking forward to many parents joining us. A reminder that the parent coach will be leaving from school at 4.30pm. Deena Reed, our Chair of Governors, will be ensuring everybody is on board. The choir will be leaving earlier in the day so they can spend the afternoon practising with the conductor. Please be reminded that all tickets were issued earlier in the year. You should bring your tickets with you for this revised date. We look forward to reporting back and sharing some photos from the evening.

In keeping with tradition, we allow all choir participants to come into school by 11am the next day after such a late evening. Please note, all siblings should be in school at the usual time.
