Newsletter 9: November 17th 2023

Dear Parents,

This has been an especially busy week. Year 6 behaved impeccably on their Year 6 trip to Bristol. This ensured that everyone was able to enjoy the day. The production of 'A Christmas Carol' has supported the book study in class. Now the children all know what it is like to experience a visit to the theatre and have a restaurant lunch in a city. This has really helped them build cultural capital. This will aid them in the future to have confidence to take up new opportunities as well as make them more open to other viewpoints and different experiences. In December, the class will visit the Houses of Parliament.

Besides the colour purple which stands for sensitivity and exceptionality, the sockline has become a symbol for World Prematurity Day. The small pair of purple socks – framed by nine full-size baby socks – symbolises: 1 in 10 babies is born preterm. Worldwide.

Children in Need- Friday 17th November

Thank you for your support today. The children looked amazing in the spotty accessories and keenly participated in the charity run.

Our children wanted us to specifically support Premature Baby Day on this day. We will be sending all cash donations to this charity.

All online contributions will go directly to Children in Need. Please enjoy watching the television with your children tonight so they can see and understand how their donations support such valuable work.

Invent it!

Can you think of something you could invent? Or maybe, you have researched an invention from the past. Is there something that you wish was invented? Talk through your ideas to help aid your writing.

SPORTING NEWS

Cross Country

20 children have shown their resilience and determination by turning up to Cross Country Club every week. As a result, we were proud to send a team of highly trained competitors to the Gloucester School competition on Wednesday. Thank you so much to Tyler's mum for her support on the day. It was very much appreciated. What spectacular results!

FRIENDS SOCIAL CALENDAR

We are very grateful to our FRIENDS for their continued hard work.

Friday 8th December – Christmas Fayre preparations are well under way and the evening is looking like a perfect way to spend your Friday 8th

December evening- 3.15pm-4.30pm.

Please wear Christmas jumpers to school that day-
in return for chocolate for the tombola.

Remember to come to the Christmas jumper swap event if you've grown out of your old ones-or even fancy a change.
