

Unicef Rights and Responsibilities

As a rights respecting school, we have agreed to focus on 6 articles throughout the school year. We will continue to maintain the key principles for all children's rights and their responsibilities throughout their time at Castle Hill Primary.

Term 1

Class Charters

ARTICLE 3

All organisations concerned with children should work towards what is best for each child

Term 2

ARTICLE 28

All children and young people have a right to a primary education, which should be free. Wealthy countries should help poorer countries achieve this. Discipline in schools should respect children's human dignity. Young people should be encouraged to reach the highest level of education they are capable of.

Term 3

ARTICLE 16

Children have the right to privacy. The law should protect them from attacks against their way of life, their good name, their families and their homes.

Term 4

ARTICLE 36

Children should be protected from any activities that could harm their development

Term 5

ARTICLE 12

Children have the right to say what they think should happen, when adults are making decisions that affect them, and to have their opinions taken into account.

Term 6

ARTICLE 29

Education should develop each child's personality and talents to the full. It should encourage children to respect their parents, and their own and other cultures.

ARTICLE 3

We want the best for everyone!!

ARTICLE 12

We are listened to and heard!

ARTICLE 16

We care about each other. We look after all of our things.

ARTICLE 28

We all go to school to learn.

ARTICLE 29

We are all special! We are proud of each other and we all do our very best.

ARTICLE 36

We are safe at school.
