

Castle Hill News: 20.06.25

Dear Parents/Carers,

What a hot week it has been! I hope you can enjoy the continued sunshine this weekend.

Sports Day

Thank you to so many families for coming along to support our Sports Day. We were very proud of the way our pupils conducted themselves and showed such great team spirit. They showed determination, competitiveness and resilience. It was great to see so many house team flags and banners being waved too. It was a very close result, but, in the end, Red Team were our 2025 winners. Congratulations!

REMINDER: Y6 Legoland Trip Monday 23rd June:

All Y6 pupils need to be in school at 8am (enter via the KS2 gate) on Monday ready for registration and trip preparation. The coach will leave no later than 8.30am.

Pupils are due back at approximately 6.30pm, traffic permitting, and MUST be collected by an adult.

REMINDER: Reception Cotswold Wildlife Park Trip Wednesday 25th June:

Please can you check your child's bookbag for a letter about the trip next week detailing what they need to bring and telling you about the day.

Message from the FRIENDS:

Castle Hill Fest Challenge!

This year, each class is invited to run a stall at our summer event with help from their parents and families. The class that raises the most money wins a free ice cream from the van on the last day of term!

Reception Glitter Tattoos

Year 1 Soak the Teacher

Year 2 Tombola

Year 3 Guess the Sweets in a jar

Year 4 Welly Wanging

Year 5 Human Fruit Machine

Year 6 Beat the Goalie

There will be a planning meeting soon (please look out for the date) to organise and your help for your child's class would be very much appreciated.

Also, are there any BBQ experts, bouncy castle marshals and refreshment sellers out there?!

If anyone is available after 1pm on 4th July, we would be very grateful for volunteers to help set up and run the event.
